

GUSTAVO THRACE WINES

2006 SAUVIGNON BLANC

The 2006 Mohr-Fry Ranch Sauvignon Blanc is sourced from the same vineyard in Lodi that we have used for this wine since the 2000 vintage. Once again, this wine was fermented and aged in stainless steel to retain the crisp, clean tastes in the wine. The nose is wildly fragrant with aromas of fresh straw, kiwis and a hint of the tropics. It has an amazingly round mouthfeel for having been aged in stainless, a nod to Gustavo's expertise in the cellar. There is a pronounced mineral/steel character to the finish on the wine that makes it the perfect wine to pair with soft goat cheeses, sushi, crab cakes and, especially, oysters. 500 cases produced.
